

Igolping completes acquisition of Inpractis

Fremont, CA. — Dec 23, 2008 — Igolping, Inc. the leading provider of Golf Driving Range (GDR) Kiosks with future worldwide distribution of localized GDR Kiosks, announced today that it has completed its previously announced acquisition of Inpractis, Inc. a premier GDR Kiosk provider.

"The completion of this acquisition represents a significant step for Igolping in our strategy to accelerate growth in our core GDR business," said Doug Sumaraga, chief executive officer of Igolping. "Today, we significantly increased the depth and breadth of our sales coverage in the vastly underserved market for Golf Driving Ranges by welcoming more than 100 PGA Teaching Professionals from Inpractis – individuals who know the marketplace and our products, and who already have existing client relationships. As a result of the acquisition, we also now have an ability to focus in our targeted international markets — including Japan and the rest of Asia — where we see significant opportunities for growth, as well as greater coverage in the USA GDR' s.

Mr. Sumaraga continued: "We are now squarely focused on quickly seizing the attractive opportunities this transaction has created for us to increase top-line growth as well as achieving significant cost synergies in general and administrative expenses. With the Inpractis acquisition now complete, Igolping is a stronger, more broadly based company than ever before, with increased capacity to reach new customers and the ability to provide current users of Inpractis Swingpractis Kiosks with enhanced products and services. We are looking forward to delivering on the promise of this acquisition and to building value for our shareholders."
